ACONGA™

Experience the Artisan Spirit of Argentina

An ancient Incan word meaning Stone Sentinel, Aconcagua is the highest mountain in the Americas, towering over Mendoza, Argentina. It is this great mountain's name that inspired ACONGA, a symbol of grandeur and the celebration of a land steeped in history. Argentina, known as the land of silver, embraces artisans well known for their unparalleled silver craftsmanship. This Aconga wine was similarly crafted with expert Argentinean pride, culminating in a superior blend for everyday enjoyment.

TASTING NOTES

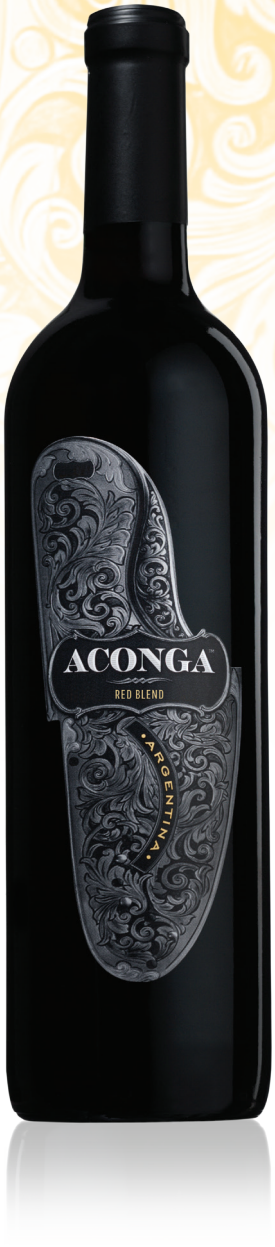

Like the practiced artisans of Argentina, this wine has been expertly blended for bright flavors of cherry and black fruit with a hint of sweet spice and chocolate. The nose is a medley of vibrant red currants, black cherry and plum notes. The palate is dense and concentrated, balanced by the lively red berry acidity that lifts the wine and adds to a youthful yet complex and serious wine style. The tannins are fine grained, rich and sweet. Dark chocolate and vanilla notes along with a hit of cinnamon round out the wine to exhibit a superb example of this variety.

FOOD PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

This soft and supple blend of Bonarda and Merlot makes an excellent companion to roast beef or pasta with red sauce.

VINEYARDS

Located in the eastern foothills of the Andes, in the shadow of Mount Aconcagua, vineyards are planted at the some of the highest altitudes in the world, with the average site located 1,970–3,610 feet above sea level.
