MARTIN'S RAKE

Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough

Wine of NEW ZEALAND

Situated on New Zealand's East Coast,

the township of Marlborough is bordered by towering mountains. Their westward-raked vineyards were originally tended by a skilled winemaker, greatly revered by the townspeople who referred to him as Old Man Martin. Together, the sloped vineyards and winemaker struck the perfect balance to produce a wine that was celebrated vintage after vintage.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of gooseberry and tropical fruit are framed by a bright, refined acidity and an elegant finish.

Region

Situated on New Zealand's East Coast, bordered by towering mountains, lies the township of Marlborough.

Food Pairing

Garlic or Italian seasonings in creamy sauces and fragrant salads — like Greek, Caesar or garden.
